

The Foundation for Wildlife Management's Code of Conduct

As members we accept responsibility for our individual actions. Member violations of Fish and Wildlife laws are not allowed. If violated, F4WM's Board of Directors has the authority to suspend or terminate that individual's membership.

Each member of F4WM shall commit to:

1. Complying with all relevant Fish and Wildlife laws
2. Representing The Foundation for Wildlife Management in a professional, ethical manner
3. Understanding that any attempt to defraud the program financially, theft of another person's wolf, or tampering with another person's traps is ground for suspension or termination of membership
